

Travelling Song

Conducted by Rod Eichenberger; FSU emeritus

Mikhail Glinka

Smoke is rising, soon a steamer will depart!
What a picture: many colors, all excitement and impatience!
People get on board with lightness in their hearts.
And the train is speeding o're the plain on such a great occasion,
To you, my beloved, my secret thoughts fly.
My heart beats and trembles as time passes by.
As questions and doubts through my mind briefly flutter,

"Oh heaven how long?".
I impatiently utter.
Not breezes, nor birdsong, nor lilac's sweet bud, but only your tender gaze quickens my blood.
How sweet are love's kisses, how sweet the heart's yearning, how sweet our reunion when I am returning.

Clara Schumann

Conducted by Melissa Albert; Tigard, OR

I stood here in my dark dreams, and gazed at your picture there, and your beloved face showed life that renewed with each stare. Around your lips blossomed a smile with wonders light; and from your eyes, hot teardrops, flowed freely throughout the night. And then, my tears ran ceaseless, still flowing down to my cheek: and, oh, I cannot believe that I will not hear you speak
